

GR2030 ZERO NET ENERGY SERIES:

Navigating Building Audits

Building audits can be expensive! The cost of a building audit is variable and the expectations can be confusing.

During this session you'll hear from a panel of experts ready to answer your questions and address the differences in today's building audits. You'll gain a thorough understanding of how a building audit should be the first step to developing a strategic plan for upgrades at your building. At the conclusion of this event you will be armed to produce a RFP (Request for Proposal) that will put you and your chosen contractor on a path to a successful energy reduction plan.
